

NCSI 2027 ANNUAL MEETING

May 23–26, 2027 • Omni Grove Park Inn & Spa, Asheville, NC

CONFERENCE SPEAKER APPLICATION & GUIDELINES

The National Council of Self-Insurers (NCSI) has supported the interests of workers' compensation, safety, and general liability professionals since 1946. We welcome speakers with innovative ideas, practical expertise, and timely topics that address the specific needs of our members.

Do you have an idea for a great presentation or a subject you believe would benefit self-insured employers? If your topic fits NCSI's educational mission, we invite you to submit a proposal.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Presentations must focus on practical ways for self-insured or high-deductible employers to improve the governance, administration, or management of their workers' compensation, safety, or general liability programs.
- We are specifically seeking topics with a clear "how-to" component and practical takeaways attendees can apply in their organizations.
- All panels must include a self-insured or high-deductible employer representative.
- Topics should be innovative, current, engaging, and relevant to self-insured employers, claims administrators, adjusters, and attorneys involved in the management of workers' compensation claims.
- Speakers should be recognized industry experts who are knowledgeable about and passionate about the proposed topic.
- Topics must be eligible for continuing education credits for adjusters and attorneys, where applicable.
- Preference may be given to speakers who are NCSI members.

SPEAKER GUIDELINES

- Presentations must be educational in nature and may not include direct marketing or sales of a product or service.
- Speakers may not use presentation slides to promote or sell products or services.
- Selected speakers must provide presentation materials and other requested content by the deadlines established by NCSI.
- NCSI reserves the right to edit presentation titles and descriptions for conference materials and to determine final program placement.
